

Fellowship for Indigenous Leadership

We need your help! If you, or someone you know, possesses the qualities of a Victorian Indigenous Leader we want to hear from you!

We would like to invite you, or someone you could recommend, to be a part of the growing number of community leaders whose exceptional leadership skills have been recognised and supported by the Fellowship for Indigenous Leadership.

Since 2003 we have appointed three Fellows and eight Emerging Leaders providing them with support and assistance with their plans and broader vision for improving the social, economic and emotional wellbeing of Indigenous communities in Victoria.

We have on offer two Emerging Leaderships and welcome expressions of interest from all backgrounds (e.g. arts, business, community, education, environment, health, media, sport, etc).

The closing date for applications will be the close of business Tuesday, 13th March, 2012.

“The Fellowship opportunity has helped me enormously to believe in myself and achieve a very long-term goal.”

Jody Saxton-Barney Emerging Leader 2011
